

PLANNING AND PLACEMENT TEAM LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE (PPTLI)

The Planning and Placement Team Leadership Institute (PPTLI) is a one-year intensive experience for professionals who chair PPT meetings in Connecticut. The purpose of the institute is to train leaders to facilitate PPT meetings that meet legal requirements, foster positive school/parent partnerships and results in high-quality special education programming. This statewide initiative is designed to support compliance with state and federal special education regulations.

This year-long institute is funded and supported by the CT State Bureau of Special Education, Connecticut Parent Advocacy Center, RESC Alliance, and the CT State Education Resource Center (SERC). This year, up to 80 applicants will be supported between two cohorts.

Participants will learn to:

- facilitate team meetings;
- create and write clear and effective IEPs;
- engage in collaborative problem solving;
- foster positive relationships with parents;
- partner with district leaders to identify and implement a capstone project that addresses a needed change or enhancement in practice; and
- develop support networks to foster the implementation of best practices in the education of students with special needs

This Institute is designed for educators who serve as a PPT Chair leading PPTs in the state of Connecticut. This includes but is not limited to: Special Education Teachers, Building Level Administrators, Related Service Personnel, Special Education Directors, or others filling the role of PPT Chairperson.

COST AND APPLICATION

This course is free for the participant. Applicants are asked to notify their immediate supervisors and special education administrators of their interest and intent to apply. Travel to and from training sites is not included and will need to be paid for by the participant or supported by their district.

*This Institute is not designed to support people who are leading 504 Teams.
